When asked his intentions by an Evrning
World reporter this afternoon, Mr. Caldwell explicit:

"I have not decided yet. I have another day in which to make up my mind."

Strong inducements will be made to have
Mr. Caldwell remain, and there is a chance that he will.

The first race was at a mile, with Prince Edward a strong favorite. Adalgisa colt was becond choice and Longstride third choice.
The last named won in a gallop. Adalgisa colt was second and Rover was third. The favorite never seemed able to extend himself.
A good thing won the second race. It was Highwayman II., who was backed down from 15 to 1 to 4 to 1. He won handly from Ross
G. colt, who was the second choice. Namie Hubbard colt, a 30 to 1 shot, was third. The favorite was never in it.

Censor was the lavorite for the third race with Ruth second choice. The latter wen

After Nine Weeks' Silence the Society Stops Them.

The most absorbing topic of discussion in theatrical circles to-day was the action of the Society for the Prevention of ruelty to Children which ordered Manager T. Henry French, of the Garden Theatre, to stop the dancing of the twenty little girls who appear in the opera "La Cigale," now running at that theatre.

The Society, through Supt. Jenkins, sent a telephone message to Mr. French Monday night, stating that the twenty little dancers

The children had been dancing for the past nine weeks with the society's permission.

Manager French said to an Evening Words reporter to-day:

'No reason was assigned for this step, and of course it is a great hardship to the children as well as to ourselves.

"We have been paying each of them $6 a week and now I will have to discharge them. They were well taken care of by me and by the Company." At the office of the Society no one could be

Race Track Officials Warned by the Board of Control.

CALDWELL'S FIX.

Latonia and St. Louis Associations in a Clash Over Dates.

The racing trust, by courtesy called the coard of Control, has issued another mandate, which is as follows:

Resolved: That officials of courses racing in contravention of the resolution of Dec. 22, 1801, shall not be employed by the courses represented in the Board of Control.

W. S. Vossuno, Secretary. This is aimed exclusively at Mr. James F. Caidwell, who is at present handling the starter's flag at North Bergen. No other offitracks. Barney Aaron and Jack Adler, the ring announcers, and Louis Berte, who takes care of the blackboards, are employed at the big tracks in the same capacity during the Summer, but they cannot be considered offiban of the latest edict. None of the other "legitimate" associations and do not expect to be. So it will be readily seen that Mr. Caldwell is the only man at whom the Board's
